CASE NUMBER: 4:09CR40044-001-JPG

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

X The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer.

X The term of supervised release shall be non-reporting if the defendant is deported, removed, or voluntarily leaves the United States.

X Upon removal, deportation, or voluntary departure from the United States, the defendant shall not re-enter the United States illegally and shall obtain the express written permission and approval of the United States Attorney General, his successor, or the designee of the Secretary of the Department of homeland security as a condition of re-entry. The defendant shall not illegally remain in the United States following an order of deportation or removal.

X If the defendant re-enters the United States either legally or illegally, the defendant will report to the nearest United States probation Office within 72 hours of re-entry. If the defendant is not deported or is released on a bond by the Bureau of Immigration and Customs Enforcement, the defendant shall report as directed to the United States Probation Office.

X The defendant shall pay any financial penalty that is imposed by this judgment and that remains unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release. The defendant shall pay the fine in installment of $10.00 per month or ten percent of his net monthly income, whichever is greater over a period of 11 months to commence 30 days after release from imprisonment to a term of supervision.

X The defendant shall provide the probation officer and the Financial Litigation Unit of the United States Attorney's Offices with access to any requested financial information. The defendant is advised that the probation office may share financial information with the Financial Litigation Unit.

X The defendant shall apply all monies received from income tax refunds, lottery winnings, judgments, and/or any other anticipated or unexpected financial gains to the outstanding court-ordered financial obligation. The defendant shall immediately notify the probation officer of the receipt of any indicated monies.

X As the defendant had over $123,000 hidden in his vehicle, he shall submit his person, residence, real property, place of business, computer, or vehicle to a search, conducted by the United States Probation Office at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of supervision. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall inform any other residents that the premises may be subject to a search pursuant to this condition.
